SAN FRANCISCO SUCCESS FOR CALABRIA

Calabria Family Wines are proud to announce their latest results from the highly acclaimed 2017 San Francisco International Wine Competition.

Calabria Family Wines, a third generation family-run business, which has been in operation for over 72 years, was awarded a total of 22 medals to include three prestigious 'Double-Gold' medals awarded to the Three Bridges Barossa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon, Cool Climate Hilltops Shiraz and Calabria Private Bin Nero D'Avola. Along with the Three Bridges Barossa Valley Shiraz and Reserve Semillon taking out gold medals from the International competition.

The San Francisco International Wine Competition is considered to be one of the most influential wine competitions in the world. Attracting over 4,000 entries which are blind-tasted by a highly experienced panel of internationally acclaimed wine-industry experts. A SFIWC medal has been established as a reliable indication of wine excellence, and wines recognized as medal-worthy by their judges are universally understood to be among the very best.

"To be named among the very best on the international stage are results which we are extremely proud of." Commented Michael Calabria, General Manager, "it is a true testament to the dedication and commitment of our entire team and highlights the quality of Australia's wine regions."
